

Privacy Policy for the College's External Websites (Moodle, OSFC Web, JU, Sixth Base).

Use of cookies and your privacy

A cookie is a small data file. Cookies cannot read your hard disk or make any information collected by use of a cookie available to any third party. A cookie can only be read by the organisation that installs it.

To be able to log into the password protected areas of the website(s) and remain logged in you will need to allow cookies on your browser. OSFC neither stores sensitive information in cookies nor does it store these cookies permanently on your computer. OSFC only uses cookies as a unique user and session identifier. The cookie is destroyed when the browser session is closed.

Usage statistics

OSFC collects usage statistics that are visible to College Staff. These statistics gather information about users' access to the website(s).

Security

The College web servers and the College's computer systems have security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse or alteration of personal data.

External Websites

Websites may contain links to other Websites outside the College's control not covered by this privacy policy. The College is not responsible for the contents or reliability of the linked Websites and does not necessarily endorse the views expressed within them. Listing should not be taken as endorsement of any kind. There is no guarantee these links will work all of the time and there is no control over the availability of the linked pages. The College takes no responsible for the privacy policies of any linked Websites.

Comments and Enquiries

You should address any comments and enquires about the Privacy Policy to the eLearning Manager/Multimedia Manager.
